Plaintiff,	:	MOTION FOR EXTENSION
	:	IN WHICH TO FILE
v.	:	SENTENCING
	:	MEMORANDUM

---

The United States respectfully requests an extension up to and including this Friday, April 5, 2019, in which to file its sentencing memorandum. The current deadline, after an extension following the sentencing hearing, is today, April 1, 2019. The United States' sentencing memorandum is largely completed, although given the vast amount of evidence in this case, it is currently extremely lengthy. The United States is working to edit and narrow the memorandum, but it just has not been able to complete the task in order to meet the current deadline. This extension would not, the United States believes, affect sentencing, which is currently set for May 16, 2019, and the United States has no objection to an extension for any defense reply memorandum. Given the time in the day, the United States has not been able to reach defense counsel in order to make a Local Rule 7.3(a) inquiry.

Respectfully submitted,

BENJAMIN C. GLASSMAN
United States Attorney
